

High School Completion Status

Please provide the Hondros College Financial aid department with one of the following documents indicating the student's high school completion status when beginning college in the 2016-2017 financial aid year.

- A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of the student
- A General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript of the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in homeschool setting.

If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact the financial aid office.

2016-2017 Receipt of SNAP Benefits

The student/parent certifies that a member of the student's/parent's household, received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) sometime during 2014 or 2015. SNAP may be known by another name in some states. For assistance in determining the name used in a state, please call 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

List below all members of the household that received SNAP benefits, if you need more room please list additional names on a separate sheet.

Name	Age	Relationship	College	Will be Enrolled at Least Half Time

Household Includes:

- The student.
- The student's spouse, if the student is married.
- The parents, (including a stepparent) if a dependent student, even if the student doesn't live with the parents.
- The parents' other children if the parents will provide more than half of the children's support from July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2016-2017. Include children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with the parents.
- The student's or spouse's children if the student or spouse will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2017, even if the children do not live with the student.
- Other people if they now live with the student, the student and spouse, or the parents and the student, spouse, or parent provides more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2017.

One of the persons listed above received SNAP benefits in 2014 or 2015. If asked by my school, I will provide documentation of the receipt of SNAP benefits during 2014 and/or 2015.

Note: If Hondros College has a reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2014 or 2015.
